FANTASEYES DESIGN & PRODUCT DEVELOPMENT

2023–2025

- FantasEyes designs and manufactures accessories, primarily sunglasses and jewelry. I designed, curated, and developed eyewear collections for major retailers including Urban Outfitters, ALDO, MANGO, and Nordstrom.
- Promoted in 2024 to oversee the development and production of hundreds of monthly styles ensuring clear communication with multiple factories to meet quality standards and timely deliveries.
- played a crucial role in developing top-selling Ed Hardy eyewear styles since FantasEyes acquired the license, contributing to 26.5k+ units sold
- Created CADs, colorways, seasonal trend packages, and custom presentations using Adobe CC in collaboration with sales and buyers.

WHISPERING SMITH DESIGN & PRODUCT DEVELOPMENT

2015–2020

- Whispering Smith is a UK-based clothing importer and wholesaler.
- I designed and developed men's and young men's apparel across multiple categories for major U.S. retailers from concept to production.
- Using Adobe CC, I created tech packs, CADs, logos, packaging, marketing collateral, and trade show materials in collaboration with sales/buyers.

COLOR & TRENDS GRAPHIC DESIGN

2014–2017

- Color & Trends was a trend forecasting platform similar to WGSN, providing insights across all categories of apparel and accessories.
- I was responsible for designing weekly trend reports, promotional email blasts, and visual content for their sister blog and social media channels.
