GAIA'S whispers

Of

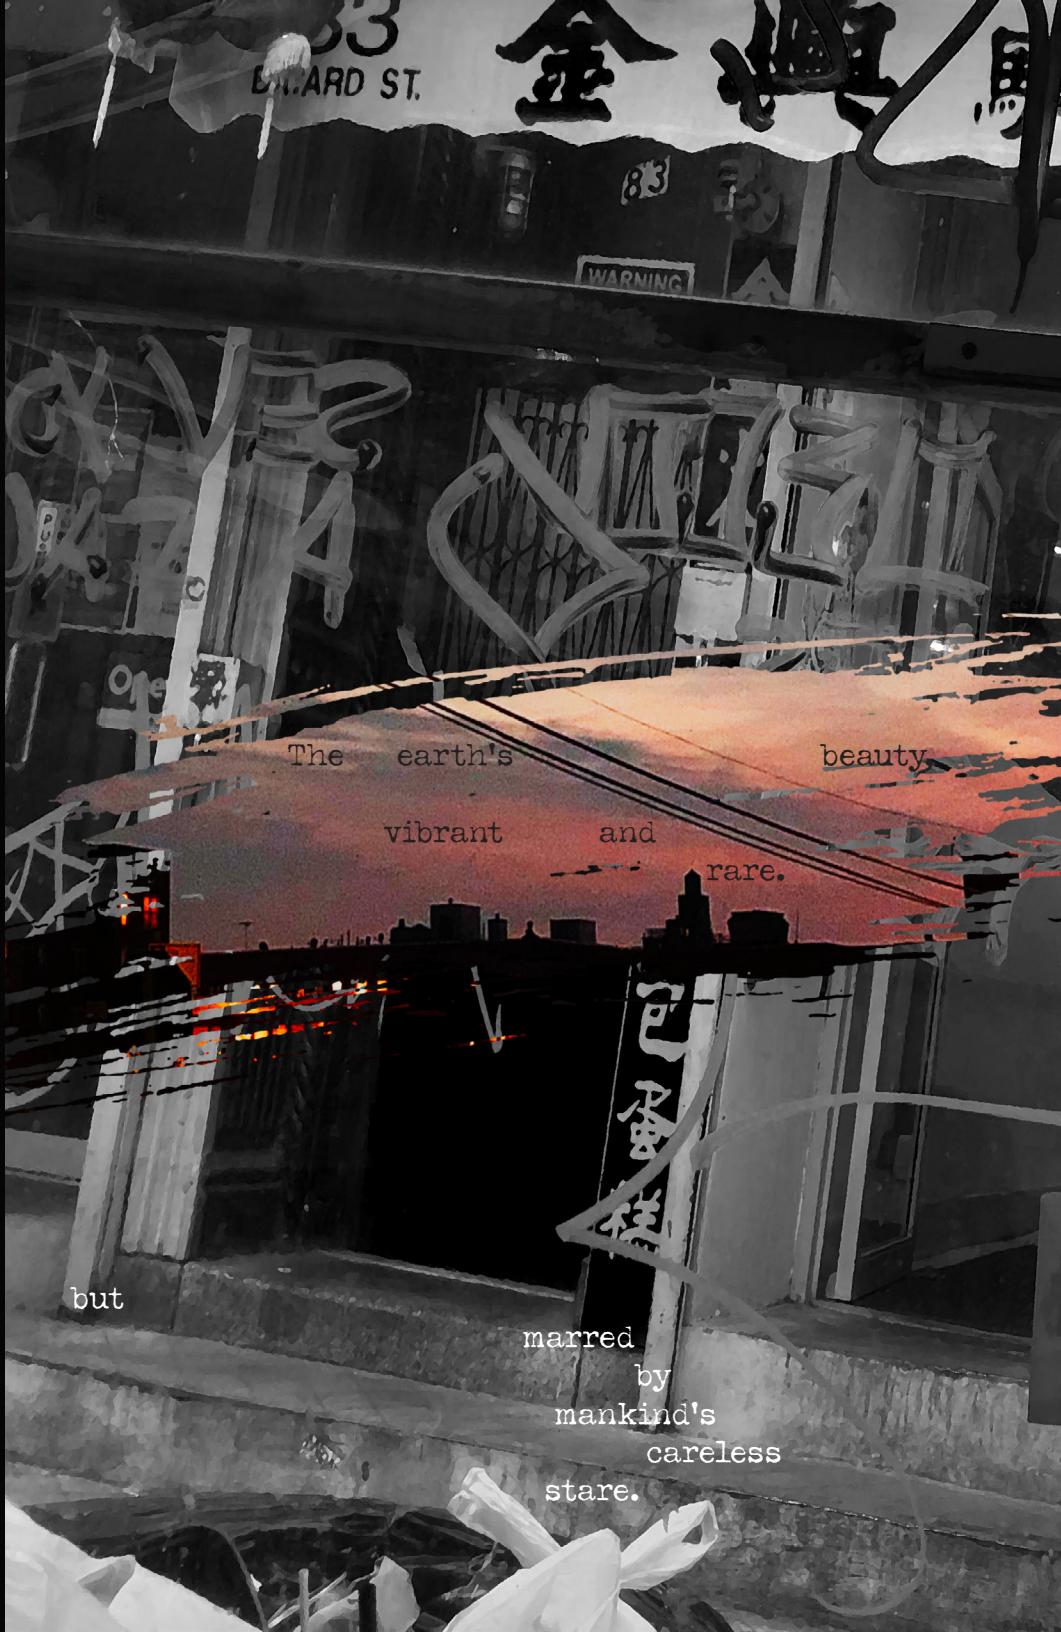

HOPE

Elephants' tears and crocodiles' whines echo the cries of a suffering world. The deafening silence of a hunting backdrop is shattered by the crack of gunshots. Does Gaia see and hear it all? Amidst the chaos, a small heartbeat emerges, a voice of hope that speaks through the pages, vowing to protect the Earth with unwavering determination.

Gaia's
a reminder of what we must embrace,
secure.

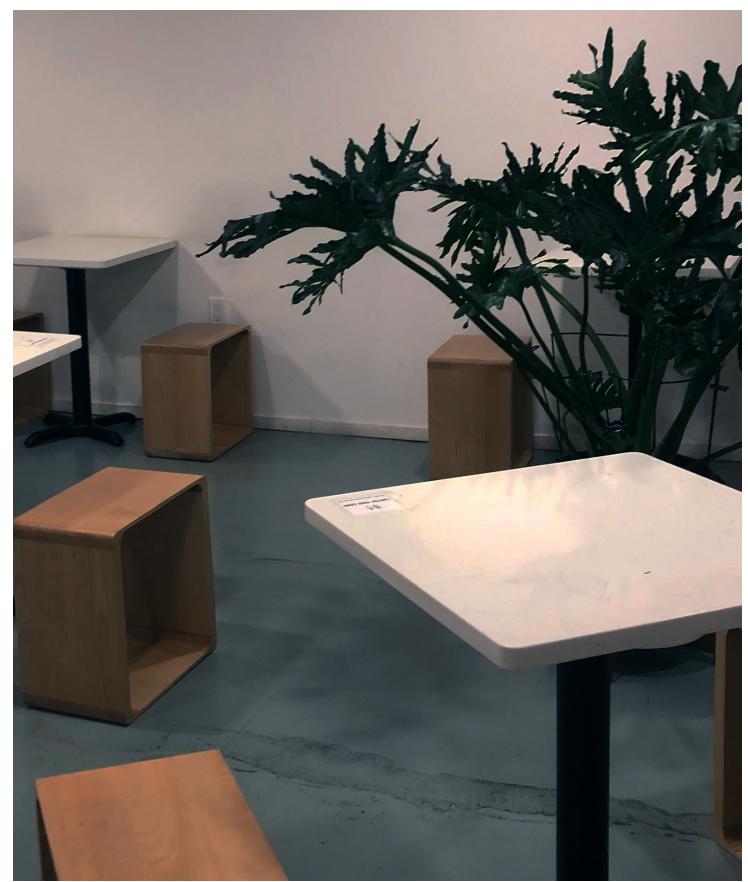

The
take

trees

sway,
birds
flight.

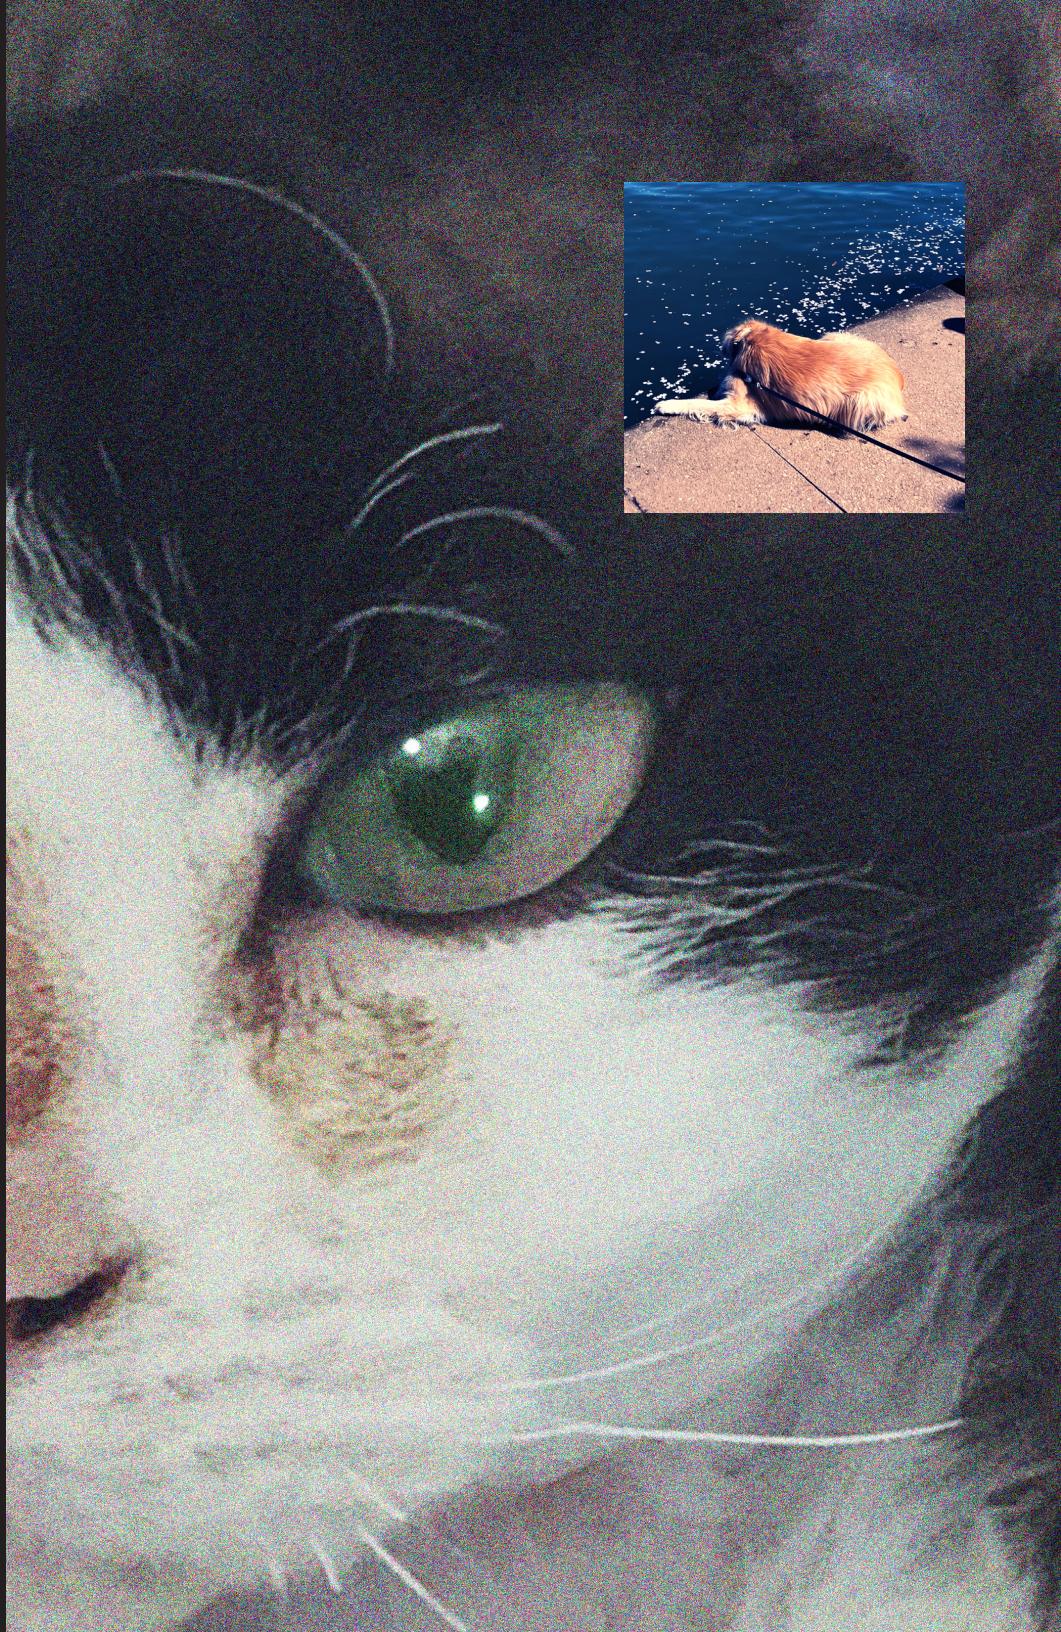

a

symphony of sound

as nature's beauty is unbound.

The sun
the moon
shines,
glow.
