

KÀTIA FËDOROV

Currently on a placement year as a BA Graphic Branding and Identity student at London College of Communication (UAL). My internships in Singapore and London broadened my expertise in branding and design across diverse sectors. Passionate about the intersection of culture and design, I am eager to tackle fresh challenges and learn from industry leaders while applying my unique perspective to impactful projects. With a strong work ethic, effective communication skills, and a growth mindset, I am excited to contribute to a design team that values innovative brand identities and celebrates diverse cultures.
