

Zach

“cho”

TSO.

A passionate Interior Design graduate of the Savannah College of Art and Design, with a strong passion for the arts, graphic design, and art direction. Born and raised in Hong Kong, the bilingual, multi-faceted creative is seeking to gain experience in the design field, while creating connections and expand on related skills.

+64 029 122 3751
zachtso@mail.com
zachtso.com

Education

2018 - 2023
SCAD: Savannah College of Art & Design
BFA in Interior Design (CIDA), Minor in Drawing

2015 - 2018
Fung Leung Kit Secondary School
Major in Design Applied Technology

Skills

Languages

English +++++
Cantonese +++++
Manderin +++++

Software skills

Sketchup
Revit
Enscape
Autocad
Photoshop
Indesign

Other skills

Physical model making
Graphic Design
Photography
Drawing
Painting

Experience

Project & Art director - R&D phase

SCAD Serve: Environment
January - March 2021

Lead a group of students in researching, brainstorming, and prototyping solutions for a new charity initiative created by SCAD

Managed, organized, oversaw and helped in different task such as researching, brainstorming, and presentations.

Summer CAD Modeler Internship

Sane Form BIM Hong Kong
May - August 2018

Worked with different members of the office on various tasks regarding building information models (Hong Kong International Airport, Xiqu Center etc) in Autocad, Catia and Revit.

Logged financial expenses of the office.

Freelance Interior designer

Sweet Auburn Bread Co
Sep - Nov 2021

Worked with a team of student designers in creating a complete and cohesive re-branding of the Sweet Auburn Bread Company, which includes elements such as their website, products, branding and interior.

Freelance Graphic designer

Naomi Co
2021-present

Creating branding materials, website, logo, labels and other brand promotional materials for Naomi Co, a family-run essential oil company.

Participated into product photography.