Activities & Involvement

University of Cincinnati

UC Softball Club | Team Member | Social Media Coordinator

We are a member of the National Club Softball Association (NCSA) and participate in the Great American - South Conference. Our season runs for several weeks in the fall, then again in the spring for a total of about four weekends against league opponents, a spring weekend tournament, possibly an additional series or two against non-league teams, and post-season play if we qualify. As Social Media coordinator, responsibilities include, designing social media posts for game-day, season updates, important dates and other team related posts as well as designing and keeping the team website up to date and easy to use.

International Axe Throwing Federation Competitive Member

The International Axe Throwing Federation is a federally registered organization. The IATF elevates competition, safety, and sportsmanship for this growing international sport. This helps throwers focus on what matters - hitting the target. Axe throwing leagues are 8-weeks of axe throwing competition against between 15-30 other throwers. Over the first 7 weeks, you play 4 matches each week against other league members to determine who will make the playoffs in week 8.
