Education

BA (HONS) Design for Publishing -
09.21-07.24 Norwich university of the Arts

My degree has taught me relevant skills in Typography, Layout, Image making, adobe software, managing long-form text and complex information when designing as well as time management, research and ideas development skills. I have learnt to be adaptable and responsible and how to effectively work to deadlines and interpret briefs.

At the end of my final year of study I was awarded the OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTION TO INCLUTION, EQUITY, AND DIVERSITY award from the Students Union.

WHILE STUDYING I HELD POSITIONS AS:

THE INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS LIBERATION OFFICER Elected (for 2023-24) as the student union representative for international students communicating their interests within the university. Running events and as a member of the Students Union steering committee and Equity, Diversity and Inclusion committee.

STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE Representing my course and year group in years 2 and 3 of my degree, attending meetings and collaborating with the Programme Directors and Course Leaders as well as the university's senior management team, acting as a link between staff and students on the course and in the university.

CREATIVE EDUCATION STUDENT ADVISOR

A paid role for the university acting as a student advisor on matters of university development, (2023-24) providing feedback, attending meetings and holding focus groups. Working in a team and independently within the assessment group of the university's Integrated Project plan.

STUDENT AMBASSADOR AND OUTREACH

AMBASSADOR A paid role for the university, assisting with the recruitment of the next generations of Norwich University of the Arts students, (2021-24) holding and managing campus and accommodation tours, talking to prospective students and their guardians, giving presentations on student experience on behalf of the university.
