

"MARGO"
WRITTEN BY ANJUN JIA

INT. BEDROOM - NIGHT

MARGO

Do you think I'm fucking stupid?

I've noticed you watching me.
Don't lie to me. I see you.

I try to exist during the day and then suddenly your presence chokes me because I know you're there...

Try to deny deny deny. Don't lie I see you.

I can't sleep knowing you see me
as your prey. You make me sick.

What will it take to make you leave me alone. What can I do?

I know you're hiding somewhere!
You're in my walls again.

I won't hold out hope that you'll leave on your own. Clearly this can only end one of two ways:

You murder me, or I indirectly cause your death. That's what you want, right?

I'm your prey. And you won't rest until I'm your bitch again. But I'm not afraid of you.

You're the one who should be shaking. If I were Elyse...

When nobody's watching, I'd be as angry and cowardly as you too.

You never saw anything special in me, I was just there.

MARGO (CONT'D)

I was just a faceless pawn for you to exploit so you could build an empire in your shape on my back.

Well you can't steal any more of
me. I didn't love you, you only loved what I could do for you.

I'm sorry if this hurts your Feelings, but I hope Noah does a better job of babying you

*Like the helpless self-obsessed all talk no movement loser never
at fault infant hasbeen washed up*

spoiled shameless undisciplined liar without a shred of integrity that you turned out to be.

I can tell you've lived a coddled life where everyone around you enables your dysfunction

and if they don't then you drop them which is why you have no long-term friends. I know I lack

the capacity to put my own life on hold to take care of yours.

I'm not your fucking mommy, I'm not going to fix you or change your diapers, why don't you take

just a little ownership in yourself and PLEASE fix your relationship with every woman

you've ever met, especially yourself. Before you coerce the next one into wasting all her emotional labor it would take to try to save you. You can't be saved. Not the way you are now.

You might kill me. I will end you.
