

Karin Iturralde Nurnberg is an artist working with storytelling, performance and sculptural installations. She graduated from the Fine Arts department at Gerrit Rietveld Academie, and lives and works in Amsterdam. In her practice she embraces improvisation and the power of spontaneous performative and sculptural interventions, to re-arrange the world around her. Her work has been shown, among others at CAC, Quito, W139, Amsterdam, Systema, Marseille, Somalgors 74, Tschlin, Marwan, Amsterdam, puntWG, Amsterdam and A(WAKE) Foundation, Rotterdam. She is part of artist run space WILLIE in Zaandam. In 2025 she was nominated for the Sybren Hellinga Keunstpriis Award.
