ABOUT ME

I'm a California-based Creative Director with 15+ years of experience across digital and print design, branding, experiential design, presentation design, and PR-led marketing. Proven leader in conceiving and delivering high-impact creative programs for global technology, consumer, pharmaceutical, and automotive brands. Known for partnering closely with business development and project teams, leading creative vision across multiple accounts, mentoring designers, and owning work end to end—from ground-up ideation through execution. Delivered campaigns generating 100M+ impressions, double-digit increases in social engagement, and large-scale exhibitions seen by 10,000+ attendees per show.

From ground up ideation to evolution of existing campaigns. Previous successful programs include work for Barilla, Dell, Dove, eBay, Google, HP, Lexus, Lilly, Mars, Microsoft, PayPal, Salesforce, Toyota, Xbox and more.

DEMONSTRATED STRENGTHS

Creative direction and visual storytelling, executive and presentation design, experiential and exhibition design, integrated and PR-led campaigns, event and conference branding, earned media and social-first creative, influencer campaign support, packaging and environmental design, concept development, creative mentorship, cross-functional collaboration, and end-to-end creative ownership.
