

We Met In Summer, I Might Have Burned Myself

5 September - 30 September 2025

Arthur Heck

Arthur Heck (*2000, Strasbourg) lives and works in Zurich. He earned his BA from the Haute École des Arts du Rhin in 2022 and completed his MFA with distinction from the Zürcher Hochschule der Künste in 2024. His solo exhibitions include The Ballery (Berlin, 2025), Amiamo Caffè (Zurich, 2024), and Fomo Art Space (Zurich, 2023). Select recent group shows in Zurich (2025) at Studio K3, Hotel Tiger, and Anggrek Agency, ZHdK (2024), Istituto Svizzero (Milan, 2023), and ETH Zurich (2023).

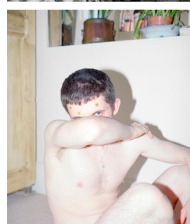

Heck's work navigates the tension between intimacy and a world in upheaval. In a time when the personal is constantly disrupted by external forces, he creates images and installations that search for fragile anchors of connection. His practice reflects on how bodies absorb, resist, and adapt to a shifting environment, where intimacy becomes a space both precarious and defiant. There's a quiet urgency in his work, echoing the discomfort of imposed visibility, the weight of overheated atmospheres, and the pressure of collective crises leaking into private space. Through this lens, Heck articulates a new form of closeness, uncertain yet resilient, rooted in sensitivity, fragmentation, and the need to find meaning in constant change.

Igor Pjörri

Igor Pjörri (*1996, Madeira Island) is a visual artist based in Paris. Their practice traces the contours of masculinity and intimacy. Pjörri's formative years on an Atlantic island shaped a sensibility attuned to isolation, distance, and the passage of time—motifs that continue to echo throughout their work. Pjörri approaches photography as a tool of flight, seeking avenues of personal revelation. Through a colour-flooded visual language, they create sensuous and painterly compositions, often depicting nautical and crepuscular scenes, expanding what they call 'confessional photography.'
