Art Documentation

Info Package

About

Based in Tāmaki Makaurau, Lindsey is a multimedia artist and arts worker with a passion for photography. Lindsey's background in Visual Arts, coupled with her experience in gallery administration, is reflected in her thoughtful approach to art documentation.

Lindsey's services are designed to meet the unique needs of galleries and artists alike.

Services and Process:

1. Consultation: We will discuss your specific requirements and interests for the photography project.
2. Photography Session: A one-to-six-hour photography session will be conducted at the agreed-upon location.
3. Editing: The images will be processed to accurately reflect the artworks in situ or according to clients' marketing priorities.
4. Delivery: I'll deliver the final digital copies of the photographs to you within the agreed-upon timeframe, typically between one-to-three weeks of shooting (depending on the project).

Pricing:

Please note: my fees vary based on the complexity of the project and the number of photographs required, and should only be used as a general guide.

I understand that every project is unique, and I'm very open to discussing pricing options and negotiating rates depending on your specific needs and budget.

Galleries:

I provide comprehensive photography services for galleries, with rates ranging from $400 to $1500 per project. Pricing is determined by factors such as the complexity of the exhibition, the number of artworks, and the hours involved in capturing and editing the photographs.

Non-Profit Organisations:

Non-profit organisations benefit from a reduced gallery rate. I'm committed to supporting non-profit clients in their artistic endeavours and offer flexible pricing options to accommodate their budgets.

Artists:

My photography services for individual artists range from $100 to $400 per session, depending on the scope of the project and the number of artworks to be photographed.
