

Sahr Qureishi

(sUh-her ker-rAy-shi)

+ is an architectural designer with a passion for advocating collective liberation through informed design. Exploring themes of infrastructural analysis, mapping techniques, accessible interaction, and engaging discourse about diverse cultures in rigid systems, much of the work plays with mixed mediums including but not limited to; storytelling, historical research and preservation, ceramics, woodworking, book production, poetry, rendering, digital video production, whimsy, and disc jockeying.
