Jordan Berry is an artist based in Central Texas, currently a Senior pursuing bachelor's degree in Studio Art with a Minor in Art History at Texas State University. Primarily working with candle wax, they explore mediums that are focused on developing a body of work centered around the ephemeral and short term. Their creative process blends deliberate planning with moments of spontaneity, allowing the works to evolve organically without limiting. As a recipient of the Assured Recurring Academic Scholarship, Berry continues training in preparatory work, refining their skills and expanding their artistic practice through art handling. They also gain valuable experience working in art galleries, deepening their understanding of the art world and the presentation of creative work.
