Proposed Location in Budapest

Erzsébetváros // 7th District

Erzsébetváros // 7th District

Erzsébetváros (Hungarian pronunciation: ['ɛrʒɛːbɛtvaːroʃ]; German: Elisabethstadt, both names meaning Elizabethtown) is the 7th district of Budapest, situated on the Pest side of the Danube. The inner half of the district was the historic Jewish quarter of Pest. The Dohány Street Synagogue, the largest functioning synagogue in Europe, is located in this district. Currently it is the most densely populated district of Budapest with 29,681.3 person per km<sup>2</sup>. In 1910 Erzsébetváros had 152,454 inhabitants.

Bethlen Square - The proposed venue

The proposed venue is situated in the middle of the Bethlen Square, and therefore closely connected to the Hungarian partner of the project, Bethlen Square Theatre
