

LUKE STOTEN

Exhibition Curator

07495783888
lukeccstoten@gmail.com
London, UK
lukestoten.com

Overview

Luke Stoten is a freelance curator and fine-art photographer originally from South-West Cornwall, now based in London. Luke brings diverse experience in connecting emerging artists to the creative industry. With a passion for fostering artistic dialogue, Luke is dedicated to creating memorable experiences through his artistic endeavours.

Education

2024

BA (Hons) Photography - London College of Communications, UAL, London

2021

A-Level Photography, Sociology, Graphic Design and Illustration - Truro College, Cornwall

Selected Exhibitions

2024

Installation Assistant: 'The Growth and Decay of Human Connectivity' - Copeland Gallery, Peckham

Curator + Exhibitor : 'Eye Speak: A Visual Exchange' - UAL, London College of Communications, Elephant and Castle

Exhibitor: 'Final Major Showcase' - UAL, London College of Communications, Elephant and Castle

2022

Curator: 'A Social Feast' - The Wells Gallery, Elephant and Castle

Curator + Exhibitor: 'Visualising Ideologies' - Staffordshire Studios, Peckham

2021

Curator + Exhibitor: 'The Beauty in the Boredom' - Peckham

Publications and Essays

2024

Dissertation Video - 'The Ballad of the Mermaid of Zennor'

2023

'Tower Magazine' - Young creatives publication

Job History

2020

Newlyn Exchange Gallery - Gallery Maintenance and Attendant

2018

BBC Cardiff - Media team work placement

2016

Penlee House Gallery and Museum - young creatives residency, event photographer

Skills

Adobe Suite- Photoshop, Lightroom, InDesign, Illustrator, PremierPro

Complex Instal Experience

Location/Studio Photo Assisting

Audio/Lighting equipment trained

Graphic Design and Social Media marketing

Public Speaking/Leadership experience

Mac OS

Microsoft Office