

Join us—on water and on land—as we start a conversation around the past, present, and future of the waterway known locally as the Don River. Organized by artist collective Mare Liberum for Evergreen Brick Works and Waterfront Toronto, for Toronto’s Year of Public Art.

For more Information on the project visit donriverradio.ca

DON RIVER RADIO HOTLINE

CALL NOW!
(416) 596-0249

DON RIVER RADIO

A six-part interactive podcast series on the evolution and future of the Don River, hosted by Mare Liberum co-founder Dylan Gauthier with invited guests. Series launching in 2022.

DRR HOTLINE

CALL (416) 596-0249 and leave an audio message for inclusion in a future episode of Don River Radio. Messages are limited to 3 minutes in length. For inspiration, you can follow the prompts below:

Call the phone number above. State your name. If you are calling from the Don River Valley or nearby, describe what you see/hear around you.

If you are currently on, beside, or near the Don River, leave a field recording. Don't talk. Walk through the site watching and listening. Allow your phone to record what you hear.

What do you remember of the Don? Do you have a favorite place or favorite memory of being on the Don River?

How do you get to/from the Don when you visit? Describe the route you take to find the Don.

Help us map your favorite or most meaningful places by describing them in your message.

THE RIVER NEEDS YOUR VOICE

Join us—on water and on land—as we start a conversation around the past, present, and future of the waterway known locally as the Don River. Organized by artist collective Mare Liberum for Evergreen Brick Works and Waterfront Toronto, for Toronto's Year of Public Art.

For more Information on the project visit donriverradio.ca

DON RIVER RADIO

HOTLINE

CALL NOW!

(416) 596-0249

