The eleventh becomes the twelfth and there is an inward there is an inward that goes upward; that the fifth is plastered Like old food hardening, a tick a nongard, discrete

Like old food hardening, a tick a range a discrete The third represents a scan, a fence that runs proportional there is a fence that borders this, from the trunk, proportional Like a slice in land, a depression that has no meaning

Open this, you will feel inspired to start, to end, to go the fish is a movement that is always moving to its end, to go Like a stone pondering it you have been and will be

Like a stone pondering its own surface and texture
The fish is scored along the belly, disembowelled inward
the fish is a movement that is always moving to its end, to go
Like a fish swimming against a current, slicing

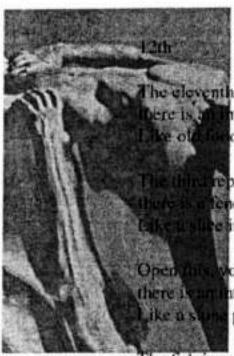

Like a fish swimming against a current, slicing
The most imagined is never a reality, this is plastic
the fish is a movement that is always moving to its end, to go Like old food, meaning what is outside could be inward

The eleventh becomes the twelfth and there is an inward there is an inward that grows downward the twelfth is plastic like oil to oil hardening and becoming solidified

The thirteenth represents a schizophrenia that is unemotional there is a fence that borders this from me to myself like a life in land, a depression that lies in me mind

Open this you will feel inspired to start again there is an intimacy you have been avoiding - you like a stone pondering its own surface and facing

The fish is scored along the belly, disembowelled inward there is a fence that runs along the body, stops at naval
Like a fish swimming against a current, slicing

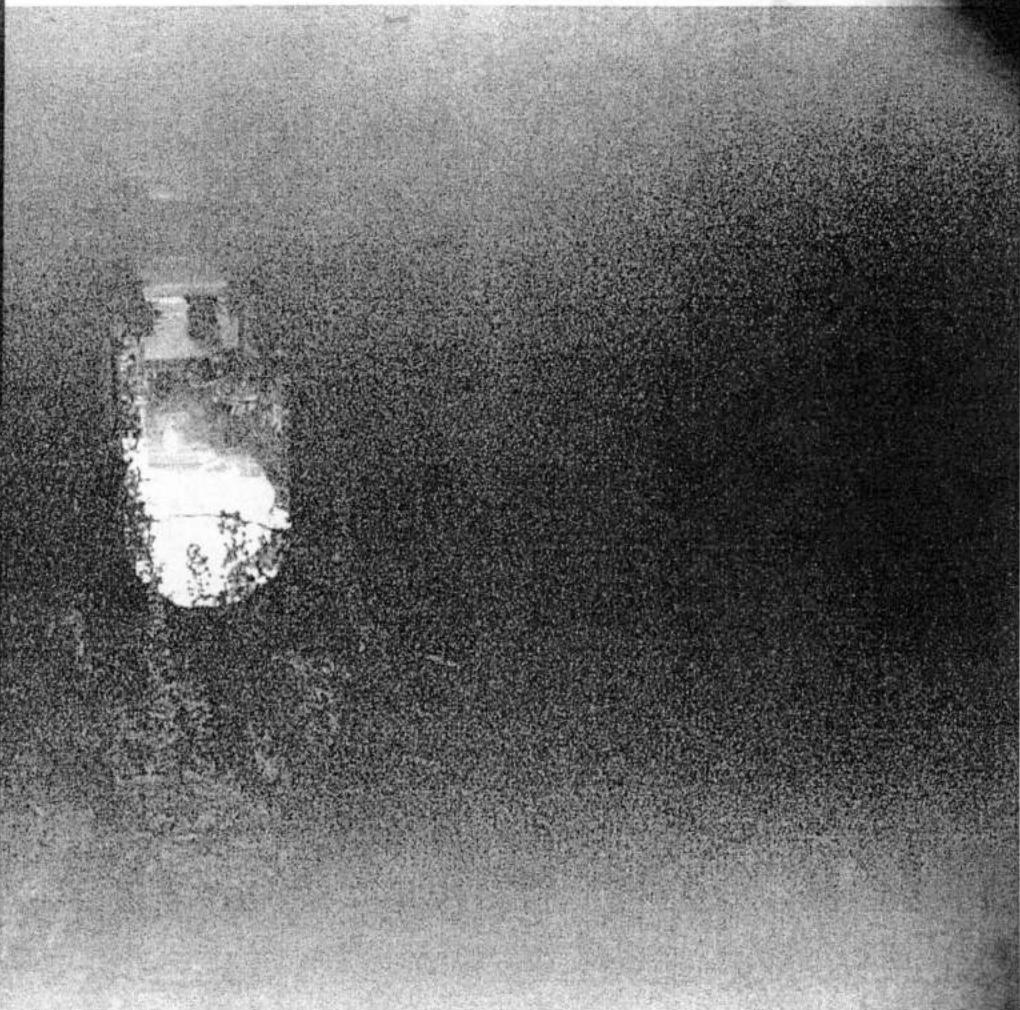

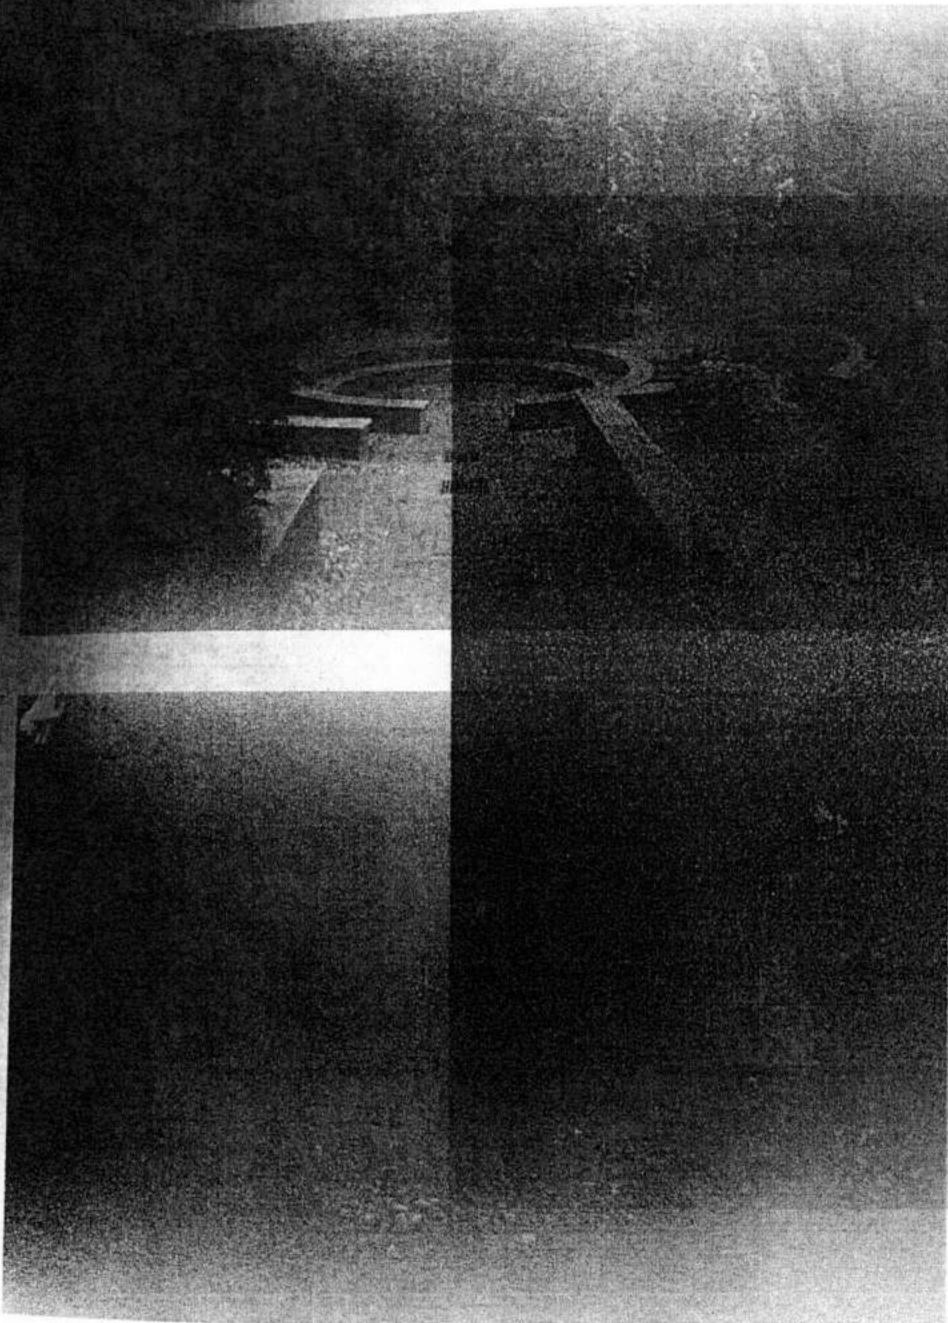

The ancients saw the sun as the giver of life and light. Radiation that is rich in the morning and the noon, and the light and clarity after a period of darkness and a bridge to light and good cheer after darkness moderation is the goal of the sun, the goal of the sun manifests itself in all creation, the winter sun over the earth, the summer sun over the earth

If you could see it now, as upper or middle If there is a connection to last day and attach Even you could walk down this, a dying mask
You travel, attach, and spread If there is plume, is meniscus, the fastest way to erase Can separate a barb from quill You could find a connection between flicker and unison
If there is spread, inconsistent or connection Even skin cannot touch, or walk or lead or travel
You attach, you spread what is your self
