

SPIRIT OF WORDS

PORTRAYING THE SOUL OF YOUR HOUSE.

The Spirit of Words offers bespoke, meaningful artwork that brings personal narratives to life, transforming spaces with depth, emotion, and intention. Designed for interior designers, architects, and stylists, this service reintroduces the tradition of personalised art commissions – offering a unique alternative to mass-produced décor.

> A solution for concept creators

Have you ever found yourself searching for that final element – a piece of art that completes your vision, resonates with your client, and seamlessly belongs within the space?

When off-the-shelf options fall short, a custom piece can bridge the gap between architecture, atmosphere, and emotion. Whether you're curating a home, a gallery-like residence, or a public-facing venue, The Spirit of Words offers artwork that responds directly to your concept and your client's story.

> What does it add to your project?

Unlike standard art acquisitions, this is an immersive, slow process – one that begins with conversation and leads to discovery. Through attentive dialogue and intuitive exploration, we uncover the words, sensations, and symbols that hold meaning for your client (or for you).

These feelings may be difficult to express – let alone visualise – but that's exactly what this method is built for: to make the intangible, visible.

THE STYLE & METHOD YOU WILL FIND

As many spoken languages exist on our planet, we each have our own visual language. The question is not just what you're looking for – but whether my way of seeing aligns with yours.

In part inspired by the traditions of Georgian avant-garde painting, my work often bridges the gap between classical and contemporary aesthetics, blending monochromatic palettes and minimalist compositions with abstract forms and modernist influences. The use of typography, literary approaches and themes as well as varied materials, results in works that aim to ignite a sensation, a feeling of sub-conscious in the viewer.

A recurring theme in these artworks is the exploration of dualities – light and dark, past and present – creating an introspective visual setting. More than anything, I believe in power of darkness, obscurity and mystery, which is why my references are deeply rooted in the past and naive; antiquity, renaissance and philosophy, that i try to bring into everything that I do.

> Method

Every artwork begins with a single word.

A word that captures a fleeting thought, a texture of memory, a sensation seeking form.

Together with you (or your client), we embark on a collaborative process to uncover that word. This becomes the conceptual seed of the piece, guiding both composition and materiality. Finding this word is what forms the powerful, emotional connection between the commissioner and the artwork.

WHAT DOES THIS EXPERIENCE HOLD?

- Personalised Inquiry. Brings a collaborative experience, enhancing the ritualistic aspect of belonging to spaces we inhabit, creating the link between the client and the artwork that is to be born. The brainstorming process and creation of the mind-map is interactive with the client and is further archived along with the final artwork as a memorabilia for the client.
- Custom Design Process. Each artwork is tailored to a specific emotional and aesthetic brief. There are no templates. Every commission is a singular visual interpretation of a unique personal or spatial narrative.
- High-Quality Materials and Craftsmanship. Crafted with archival-grade, lightfast materials that resist fading and light exposure over time, these artworks – whether in single or mixed media – offer enduring aesthetic value.

FLEXIBLE & BESPOKE PRICING

Each artwork is priced based on size, complexity, and the client's budget. The process is designed to accommodate a range of project scales, from intimate pieces for private residences to large statement works for commercial spaces.

IS THIS FOR YOU?

This is a service for those who:

- Crave meaning and storytelling in their spaces
- Are open to creative discussions and reflective inquiry
- Prefer singular, soulful pieces to decorative trends

It may not be the right fit for those seeking instant turnaround or artworks chosen to “match a sofa.” This process is slow, deliberate, and deeply rooted in symbolism and personal resonance.

LET'S BEGIN THE CONVERSATION

If this resonates with you — or if you're curious about how it might work for a current project — I'd love to hear from you.
