Journal Write

- What does it mean to be “normal” to you?
- What are some things that normal people do?
- What are things normal people DON'T do?

- Write for 7 minutes
- Answer the questions, and then write about whatever you want

Open 2nd Reading / Questions in Google Classroom

Directions

- Open the document
- Choose the level of text you want to read
- When you are finished reading, fill out vocabulary before you answer the questions

Are people more different or alike?

Why is it hard to talk about the things we aren't proud of?

How many different personalities do you have?
And what are they?

Is it good to be normal?

Answer the questions at the top of the assignment

Work on your vocabulary sheet if you finish early

Second Reading / Response: What is Normal?

Levels: Easy, Medium, Difficult, Advanced, Pro

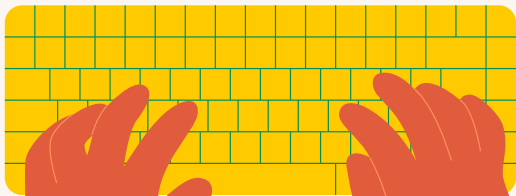

Directions: Choose which level you want to read, and try your best to understand what the writer is talking about. Then answer the questions.

- 1. Which level did you choose?
- 2. What argument is the writer trying to make?
- 3. How can you tell he's trying to make that argument? Use examples from the text.
- 4. Do you agree or disagree with the argument? Why or why not?
