Erin Cluley Gallery's NO FAIR Launches Online Saturday
April 10th and Opens to The Public In Conjunction with Dallas Gallery Day Saturday April 17th 12-8PM

In its second iteration, NO FAIR presents new works by the gallery's artists in lieu of the of the postponed Dallas Art Fair

[Dallas, Texas – March 26, 2021] ERIN CLULEY GALLERY is pleased to announce NO FAIR – a presentation of new works from the gallery's roster. In light of the ongoing global pandemic, the Dallas Art Fair, which was scheduled to be held in April, has been postponed to November. In response to the postponement, and using the opportunity to present new work, NO FAIR will feature works from the gallery's roster including Taylor Barnes, Riley Holloway, Catherine MacMahon, Anna Membrino, and Nic Nicosia. The gallery will feature new artists to the gallery program including Ryan Goolsby and Jackie Milad.

The exhibition will launch online on the ECG Viewing Room April 10th and will be on view in the gallery April 17th through May 15th. An opening reception will be held Saturday April 17th, 12-8pm in conjunction with Dallas Gallery Day. Courtney McGrail with CMG Art Advisory will host a gallery walk through at 2:30pm and multiple artists will be present in the gallery from 6-8pm.

About Erin Cluley Gallery

Erin Cluley Gallery is a contemporary art gallery representing emerging, mid-career, and established artists from Dallas, the United States, and Mexico. The gallery presents a provocative program of artists working in both traditional and alternative forms including painting, sculpture, new media, photography, sculptural installation and public intervention.

In 2014, Erin Cluley Gallery ignited a creative movement in West Dallas acting as a hub for visual arts and community engagement. After nearly five years on Fabrication Street, the gallery has moved its operation to Riverbend – a development in Dallas' Design District celebrating the intersection between culture and commerce.
