

SHANGRI LA

a solo show by noah wand @ CURRENT gallery,
fremantle / walyalup

Far away from the sewage, rats and crime Ghost gums fight and dance for a warm embrace, side tracked by a little bit of sun Bronzed, drunk and horny Cold kegs pave the way for hot takes, arguments over nothing
Some cockeyed quarrel Slick mullets sit on red necks, littered with shit tattoos and melanomas The subjects of the court jeer and wink through sly smiles, sporting battle scars and board shorts He stands, arms akimbo with his eyes on the back of his head A love letter to the genre. Spreading rumours of camembert, quail eggs and ivory Finger limes, colourbond and coward punches
Enter the Shangri-la
