About

Hi. Welcome to my resume. My name's Wyatt. I'm a copywriter, photographer, music maker, and Oxford comma advocate. I write for brands, often in a way that upsets AI. In my free time, I think about my two cats, Ohio icon Joseph Lee Burrow, and that one scene in Ratatouille (2007) where Remy combines the cheese with the strawberry. If you're a fan of my writing, or you're my wife, please reach out to realsnotreal@icloud.com at any time. It's been a pleasure speaking with you, albeit a bit one-sided. Cheers.
