GOAST

Energy Goast originates from the heart of the Lake District. We celebrate the sublime power and fragility of nature against the looming backdrop of an ever-changing climate. Designed by experts, our unique range of products are engineered to protect you and your family without compromising on style.

CYCLONE CHIC

ENVIROCLOAK™

Your all-weather companion seamlessly blending indoor comfort with outdoor resilience. Crafted with cutting-edge technology, the versatile EnviroCloak™ is more than just a hooded fleece blanket; it's an energy-efficient solution designed for both cozy nights in and the harshest weather conditions.

Indoors, the EnviroCloak™ transforms into a fuel-saving marvel, enveloping you in a cocoon of warmth. The supremely soft polyester material ensures a fuzzy embrace, making it the perfect choice for chilly evenings and a cost-effective alternative to traditional heating.

Venture outdoors, and the EnviroCloak™ comes into its element. Engineered for extreme weather, it functions as a protective shield against the biting cold, fierce winds, and snowstorms. The insulated fleece provides unparalleled warmth, while the hood ensures your head stays shielded from the elements.

INTO YOUR CORE

ZENCORE™

Immerse yourself in the elements with our ZenCore™ rest mat – a versatile sanctuary that goes beyond the yoga studio. The foam material offers a gentle yet supportive surface, cushioning you from impacts during yoga practice and serving as a comfortable emergency sleeping mat when needed. The ZenCore™ provides ample space and cushioning to ensure you stay grounded during nature's fluctuations, whether indoors or under the open sky.

As unpredictable as the elements may be, the lightweight design makes it easy to carry, turning any space into a resilient refuge and empowering you to find stability and adaptability. Beyond enhancing your yoga practice, it becomes an essential tool for survival.

CHILLSTORE™

Elevate your gatherings with the ChillStore™ ice bucket, an indispensable asset for keeping you cool during extreme heat.

The ChillStore™ is your oasis in the scorching heat. Crafted from durable Acrylic Lucite, it guarantees to keep your beverages refreshingly chilled. The easily removable lid adds a touch of convenience, making handling a breeze in any situation. Beyond its role as a cooling champion, this bucket transforms into a lifeline, providing a reliable water storage device for essential hydration.

TREKMATE™

Introducing the TrekMate™ go bag – a versatile and resilient duffel designed for gym sessions, outdoor escapades, and emergency preparedness.

With multiple pockets for efficient organization, this adaptable bag seamlessly transitions from fitness gear to survival essentials. The adjustable/removable shoulder strap and dual padded handles ensure comfortable and convenient transport, making the TrekMate™ your essential companion for any adventure or unexpected situation.

TEMPEST THREADS

PYROFLEX™

The epitome of comfort and adaptability designed to withstand the most blistering temperatures, both indoors and outdoors. Crafted for those sizzling days when the heat seems relentless, PyroFlex™ shorts redefine the boundaries of comfort and style.

Indoors, the PyroFlex™ offers a sanctuary of coolness. The elastic waistband and drawstring ensure a customized fit, allowing you to lounge effortlessly in supreme comfort. Venture outdoors, and PyroFlex™ becomes your shield against the heatwave. Engineered for extreme temperatures, these shorts keep you ultra-cool with every step, whether strolling through scorching streets or thriving outdoors in the blazing heat.

BORN TO RUN

PUPSHIELD™

Our PupShield™ pet hoodie is designed to provide your furry friend with comfort, protection, and style in the face of challenging conditions. Crafted from the finest synthetic materials, this dog defender isn't just a cozy accessory; it's a resilient shield for your pooch.

Available in five different sizes, the PupShield™ offers a tailored fit for dogs of all breeds, making it an inclusive choice for every canine companion. Durable but soft to the touch, it also acts as a weather-resistant barrier, shielding your pet from rain, wind, and unexpected weather extremes.

Stylish and functional, this easy-to-wear hoodie isn't just about fashion; it's a practical choice for the conscientious pet owner, emphasizing your commitment to your furry friend's well-being.
