

TY REX CV/PORTFOLIO

Ty Rex (they/he, b. 1994, Los Angeles) is a transdisciplinary pianist, artist, and therapeutic facilitator. Their practice integrates psychosomatic listening and improvisation as modalities for creative, spiritual and intuitive recovery in relationship to self, community, ancestry and land.

Ty Rex studied music composition at Azusa Pacific University and spent their early career in film and music production, including scoring work on Marvel's Agents of SHIELD and The Walking Dead. Beginning in 2017, they directed public arts programming in Redding, California, commissioning five major murals. From 2021 to 2024, they co-hosted Lullaby Club, an online music collective on Clubhouse with 74,000 members.

Since 2023, Ty Rex has served as artistic director of Open House, a Los Angeles-based improvisational performance series inspired by Alice Coltrane's devotional practice. The project has hosted 19 intimate editions with 350+ attendees across U.S. and European venues. Their 2024 solo exhibition, Movement, at START Gallery, Los Angeles, presented photography, drawing, painting, sculpture, film, and code-generated works alongside live performance. Ty Rex maintains a private therapeutic practice and teaches internationally.

APPENDIX C: REDDING ARTS

REDDING ARTS (2017-2021) WAS A PUBLIC INITIATIVE TO REVITALIZE A STRUGGLING DOWNTOWN THROUGH PUBLIC ART.

AFTER A DEVESTATING WILDFIRE IN AN ECONOMICALLY-DEPRIVED CITY CENTER, WE HAD A SIMPLE VISION: BRING IN WORLD-CLASS ARTISTS, BEAUTIFY THE CITY, AND WATCH IT BLOOM.

THROUGH COMPELLING SOCIAL MEDIA STRATEGIES, CROWDFUNDING, AND NUMEROUS PRIVATE AND PUBLIC PARTNERSHIPS INCLUDING THE MAYOR'S OFFICE AND SHASTA COUNTY ARTS COUNCIL, WE TURNED PUBLIC SENTIMENT INTO AN OPTIMISTIC FORCE FOR REVITALIZING DOWNTOWN COMMERCE AND CULTURE.

TODAY, REDDING'S CITY CENTER IS ALIVE WITH STUNNING ARTWORKS, NEW BUSINESSES, EDUCATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS, AND MAJOR DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS.
