KYLE MILLER

Set Designer

BIO

---

With a strong background in construction and a lifelong passion for music, Kyle has honed his craft by training under some of the most talented set designers in the fashion industry.

He has the pleasure of working with a range of well known clients as Louis Vuitton, Valentino, Rémy Martin, Chicos, Diesel just to name a few.

KYLE APPROACH

Kyle has a laid-back demeanor and excels at managing various dynamics and personalities on prep days and on set. He operates as a one-man band, working quickly, professionally, and with great attention to detail.

Whether interacting with photographers, top models, store managers, or carpenters, he earns admiration for his expertise and ability to get things done seamlessly. His skills and positive energy truly set him apart.

EXPERIENCE

2016 - 2022

Fabrication Shops and Set Roles

Kyle began honing his craft in various fabrication shops throughout New York, focusing on TV series, major retail groups commissions, and experiential marketing pop-ups for fashion and lifestyle brands. He has also worked on numerous sets, taking on roles such as Photo Assistant, Production, and Set Designer Assistant.

True Stills - Podcast Host

Developed a one-hour weekly program that featured music and engaging conversations with special guests. He took charge of curating and booking a diverse range of artists, musicians, photographers, and entrepreneurs, including rapper Chase Fetti, photographer Mel D. Cole, and Duke Da God, Vice President of A&R at Diplomat Records, to name just a few. Each week, he carefully planned topics relevant to his guests > > and their industries, as well as discussing significant subjects related to pop culture and current events. He produced live DJ sets or pre-recorded music that aligned with the brand and catered to the unique preferences of his guests. Additionally, he created and sold merchandise, such as stickers and t-shirts, to promote the podcast at a time when podcasts were still emerging in popularity.

2021 - Present

Art Departmente team leader & Independent Set Designer

After joining MHS in New York and assisting several designers, Kyle took charge of a significant project alongside Mary Howard, focusing on sets and installations for Valentino, Louis Vuitton, and Prada to name a few, and began working independently on projects for Diesel, Fish Montell, and more to come.

BODY OF WORK

PROPS

From ceilings to floors, and both outdoor and indoor props, there are no boundaries. If a prop hasn't been created yet, he will construct it.

FABRICATION

Kyle is very familiar with wood and very keen to recycle materials to reduce waste to the minimum. His passion for sustainability drives him to explore various woodworking projects that not only showcase his skills but also promote environmental responsibility.

SET DESIGN

Kyle has gained extensive experience working in studios and various locations throughout New York, as well as on high-end sets. This expertise enables him to swiftly bring specific designs to life while meeting high demand expectations.
