AWARDS & HONORS

Kenneth & Jo Ann White
Memorial Scholarship
April 2025

Recipient
Selected by Wendy, and Kenneth Jr. White and additional family members, this scholarship is awarded through the support of the White family—Jo Ann White (ASU Graphic Design instructor), Kenneth White (former IBM designer and ASU professor), and their daughter Wendy White and son Kenneth Jr. To this day, Ken and Jo Ann's children, Wendy and Ken Jr., along with additional family members, continue to support the third-year design students with the scholarship. They return every year to announce the recipients and honor this scholarship. Applicants present work from second and third-year studio courses, which is reviewed by them to determine the recipients.

AWARDS & HONORS CONT.

ASU Graphic Design Studio
Night Poster Contest
March 2025

Winner

Recognized by Lisa Peña, Katie Ireland, McCall Barger, and Nathan Finden. Every year the Graphic Design Program Faculty hosts a competition in which all of the third-year graphic design students design a poster for the annual Graphic Design Studio Night. The Faculty selects three finalists, then the students themselves vote for their favorite poster. This event brings undergraduate third-year students of graphic design and industry partners together for an evening of connection, collaboration and career-building opportunities. This poster is advertised on the ASU website and was posted on the ASU Design School Instagram.

Trailhead Design at the Grand Canyon National Park
March 2025

Finalist

Recognized by Meghan Smith, Preventive Search and Rescue Supervisor and Coordinator at Grand Canyon National Park. Meghan and the Grand Canyon National Park Committee came to the third-year graphic design students with the help of Nathan Finden, Clinical Assistant Professor, to re-design the trailheads, and water safety signs at the Grand Canyon. Teams develop complex data visualizations, icons, and clean grid structured layouts. Trysten worked in a team of six, and our proposal was selected as one of the six finalists.

ASU Annual Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Campaign
March 2025

Winner

Recognized by Colleen Jennings-Roggensack, ASU Vice President for Cultural Affairs, and Executive Director of ASU Gammage. Each year, the ASU Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Committee hosts a competition for third-year Visual Communication Design students to honor Dr. King's legacy through a comprehensive visual strategy. Teams develop branding, print and digital collateral, budgets, and event timelines. Trysten worked in a team of six, and our proposal was selected as the sole finalist, earning top recognition from the committee.

ASU Graphic Design Open House Poster Contest
September 2024

Finalist

Recognized by Lisa Peña, Katie Ireland, McCall Barger. Every year the Graphic Design Program Faculty hosts a competition in which all of the third-year graphic design students design a poster for the annual Graphic Design Open House. The Faculty selects three finalists, then the fourth-year graphic design students, as well as the Design Faculty vote for their favorite poster. This event is for the undergraduate third-year and fourth-year students of graphic design to show off anything they have done throughout the program.
