*It's the email you've all been waiting for...HELLOOOOO GROUP 98!

My name is Olivia Wilmarth (pronouns: she/her/hers) and I will be your Orientation Advisor (OA) during New Student Orientation here at the happiest place on earth, not disney world but GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY

I am so excited to meet you all and help you transition into #collegelife during NSO! I'm here to answer any and all questions (even the ones you're afraid to ask) and serve as a resource throughout your time on the hilltop.

I'll meet you for the first time at the NSO Welcome Session on Saturday, August 25th @ 3pm in McDonough Arena! When you get there, look for our OA group number, 98!

In the meantime, don't forget to download the NSO app on your smartphone! It has lots of helpful features to simplify your orientation experience!

Now for the fun part, icebreaker questions <333

Please REPLY ALL answering the following questions!

1. The basics: name, pronouns (if you want), hometown, school & potential major/academic interests
2. What's one thing you learned this summer? This could be a deep realization, a skill, or just a fact
3. What are some clubs/activities you are hoping to get involved in on campus?
4. Tell us an unpopular opinion about food that you have will forever stand by
5. The most important one: favorite vine (if you don't know vines, watch a compilation on youtube, you'll thank me later)

BONUS: Now's your chance to plug your social media and score some new followers - insta, twitter, or even soundcloud if you're bold

I'll go first!

1. My name's Olivia, though most people call me Olive! I use she/her/hers pronouns. I'm from down south aka Chesterfield, Virginia which is just south of Richmond and about 3 hours from DC. I'm in the NHS, majoring in Global Health and minoring in Disability Studies.

2. I learned that children are exhausting - my two jobs this summer were babysitting a 4 year old and working at a daycare center on campus. If you ever need a reason to never have kids, try that combination

3. I'm a cheerleader and also involved in GAAP, campus ministry stuff and of course NSO! I also work at the RHO (residential hall office) which is where you will pick up packages and get lockout keys.

4. Strawberries are so overrated and blueberries are easily superior. Change my mind.

5. Can i get a waffle? Can i PLEASE get a waffle?? waffle house employees fighting in the background (for reference: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=klIV1kVEej8>)

Please friend me on facebook or follow me on insta @oliviawilmarth! Of course i'm #teamfollowback

Now it's your turn!!

Send your answers to the group as soon as you get a chance! We can't wait to hear from you.

One last thing: Add my number to your contacts! You can text or email me anytime with questions or concerns. Also, please send me your numbers!

(804)894-7255

Enjoy the rest of your summer and get excited for NSO!

Your OA,

Olive

mic drop

P.S. Hope you enjoyed the Pitch Perfect theme for this email's gifs. If you haven't seen the movie(s) that is required viewing before orientation (jk) (kinda)

P.P.S. dont forget to reply all answering the questions first one to respond gets a prize

Hi Olivia,

1. My name is Beau Reitz (Bo Rights). My pronouns are he/him/his. I was born and raised in Keizer, Oregon (a suburb city of Salem) and graduated from McNary High School. I will be enrolled in the college and hope to study government and music (I play the violin).

2. Yall'st, I learned that hammocks are the greatest things on earth this summer. So versatile.

3. I am hoping to be a member of a chamber ensemble and the GU Orchestra as a violinist this year. I may or may not try singing in an acapella group (I've seen and loved all three Pitch Perfect movies). I would also like to somehow become involved in any LGBT groups on campus. I am open to many more things; I just don't know if I will have time. Maybe I can be a student guard.

4. Pasta salad makes me sick. Sorry, not sorry.

Hey guys!

1) My name's Catherine McCarthy (she/her/hers), and I'm from Chagrin Falls, Ohio (very close to Cleveland). I'm entering CAS as a French major and I'm planning on declaring a second major in physics.

2) I, too, have discovered that children can be very difficult (even if interacting with them is rewarding in the end!). Although I already knew this from my 9 year old sister, and I was expecting a break while she went to an overnight camp, I'm a tennis camp counselor and my kids loooooove to throw their rackets, throw the cones that I set out for them, and throwing clay at each other (there's generally a lot of throwing).

3) I might want to get involved in either IM or club tennis. Also, getting involved with a physics lab and doing research would be pretty nifty cause I'm a big nerd

4) I have been vegetarian for seven years, and I will stand by that. I generally try not to be obnoxious about it, but people love to fight me on it all the time.

5) "What do you have?!" "A knife!!!" "NOOOO!!!!!!!"

Sorry, but I don't really have any social media cause I know I would waste way too much time on it!!! I do have a Snapchat though (catherine_mc20). See you at NSO!

1. Hey everyone, my name is Charlie Rote. I'm from Larchmont, NY about 30 minutes north of NYC. I will be in the College and plan on majoring in History.
2. I learned how to deal with blue screens on computers after switching from Mac to PC.
3. I plan on joining the club squash team and playing some form of IM or club soccer in the fall too. Also looking to get a job at some point, maybe as an IM ref.
4. My unpopular food opinion is liking sausage more than bacon in breakfast foods.

Hi Guys,

1. My name is Hannah Nichols (like the coin) and I'm Chanhassen, MN which is just outside of Minneapolis/St. Paul area. I'm going to be in SFS and have no idea what I want to major in but I know my proficiency requirement will be for Spanish.
2. I learned that the hand on the flex bicep emoji looks like a sloth.

3. I'm not sure what I all want to get involved in yet but I definitely want to do club softball and try the intermurals battlehip game. I also need to find a job but other than that though I'm just going to wait and see what interests me.
4. I don't if this is exactly unpopular but its definitely uncommon, but I eat pancakes with peanut butter and syrup on them.

Hi everyone,

- 1.) My names Maddie Berry and I'm from Maynard, ma, a really small town 45 minutes from Boston. I'm in the NHS and I'm a nursing major.
- 2.) This summer I learned that coffees best when it's completely black.
- 3.) I definitely want to get involved in the own it summit and I might want to join the GU dance company or some other dance group. Other than that I'm pretty unsure
- 4.) This sounds super weird but I'm all for dipping pizza in apple sauce. My preschool used to give us apple sauce for fruit on pizza Friday's and I've stood by it ever since.

Hey guys,

1) my name is Sophia Nunn (she/her/hers) and I'm from NYC. I'm undeclared in the college and honestly have no idea what I want to major in (maybe anthropology/sociology, maybe biology of global health, maybe a minor in French...really TBD)

2) I learned that peanut butter is a blessing (greatest food on earth) but also a curse (pretty bad for your skin)

3) I definitely want to play club basketball and maybe do club boxing too. I'm also interested in being a photographer for the fashion magazine and maybe a writer for another publication on campus. Also looking to get a job and would totally be interested in any food related clubs.

4) I always get a lot of shit for this but I've hated melted cheese for as long as I can remember and only recently have I started to somewhat accept it (as in I no longer take it off of pizza)

5) "it's a fucking bear!" "noooooo" "oh shit it's right there"

1. My name is Young Su Kim from Jeju, South Korea, but I also go by Mike. I'm going to be going into the college with an undecided major (a.k.a no idea what I want to do with my life).
2. Over the summer, I learned that procrastination is the best thing you can do while also being the worst thing you can do.
3. Not really sure about the clubs that I want to join, but definitely willing to try out different things. I know that I want to join club soccer and some sports but also something like debate or community service.
4. Avocados should not be edible. Seriously.

10 MINUTES UNTIL THANKSGIVING !!!

This year I am thankful for the best OA group I could ever imagine! Seriously, you guys have made this year so so special for me. I appreciate your openness, friendship, and love more than you know! And for that reason i'm bringing back this GOLDEN email chain for SECRET SANTAAAA

You all did so well at replying all to my super extra & annoying intro email from August(sorry not sorry) that i know you can do it again <3

REPLY ALL with the following:

1. THREE things you're thankful for relating to Georgetown (bonus points if you include group 98/NSO/me)
2. Favorite holiday tradition (for thanksgiving or winter break)
3. A wishlist for secret santa! optional, if you want to be totally surprised. Keep in mind the price limit is $20! Be as specific or vague as you would like

Here are my answers

1. Y'ALL

My roommate Julia & her new Nintendo Switch

Olive Branch grain bowls

2. Getting together with my cousins!

3. No gifts for me, but can't wait to see your wish lists

As always, reach out for any and all reasons!

MUCH LOVE

Your OA,

Olive

I didn't think I'd be the first to reply but here goes...

1. All of 2 South

Having all my classes start after 11am

Being introduced to Jell-O shots and peppermint patties by the best OA

2. Getting fat and happy with my extended family

3. TBH not a lot I want for Christmas, but if whoever has me for secret Santa doesn't have an idea, there are a few Apple Watch bands for $20

Happy belated Thanksgiving!!

Wohoooo hope everyone's had an amazing break <333

1. Ultimate frisbee team!! (&sport)

Doing highs/lows with y'all (did this with my advisory in hs so it's nice to have a familiarity)

My Tuesday schedule

2. Getting our Christmas tree as a family from the same guy we've been going to for years who's from Canada

3. I love fun socks and I love chocolate! Or anything remotely related to frisbee or just a nice card

Hope everyone had a very good Thanksgiving!

1. People of 2 South,
2. Not a tradition, but really looking forward to going back to Korea for Winter Break.
3. Honestly anything should make me happy, but hopefully something I can use or just have fun with :)

Hey guys!!! Hope you all had a great thanksgiving!!

1. I'm grateful for being in what is clearly the best OA group, late-night coffee from Midnight Mug, and the beautiful view over campus from Reagents 4
2. I can't decide which is better, so I'll put both: having a crazy Christmas Eve with my extended family, and going sledding with my little sister
3. I know this isn't really helpful, but just surprise me :)

Hello Friends,

1. Weekly liquor runs with Charlie, Mike's hugs when I come back drunk to new south, everyone in the 98
2. Going for waffles on Christmas morning
3. Sour Patch KIDS, Ritz Crackers, $20 worth of hugs, candles that mask the smell of weed, if you bake me a box of brownies I will love you forever much love xx
