Content Management Systems

De tijd dat je om een website te maken veel van code moet kennen, is al lang voorbij.

Ontwikkelaars gebruiken nu Cross Management Systems.

Waarmee ze websites maken die wel uitbreidbaar/aanpasbaar zijn met code

En wat is een Content Management System?

Een CMS helpt de content van je website op een systematische manier te beheren.

Je kan zo zonder code
aan de slag om een website te maken.

Deze content kan vanalles zijn:

forum

e-commerce

blog

...

landingspage

portfolio

Vaak kost een CMS-systeem geld.

Je betaalt afzonderlijk ook nog
de domeinnaam (en eventueel de hosting) van de website.

Een CMS systeem kun je meestal raadplegen vanuit je browser.

Je kunt natuurlijk nog altijd websites maken zonder een CMS.

Dan schrijf je (zelf?) de code in HTML, CSS en Javascript.
Je linkt deze met elkaar, en zet deze op een server.

HTML= Hyper Text Markup Language

Een programmeertaal voor het schrijven van webpagina's

CSS= Cascading Style Sheets

Een programmeertaal om je HTML-pagina vorm te geven

Met een CMS hoeft je deze code niet meer zelf te schrijven, maar bewerk je dit op een visuele wijze.

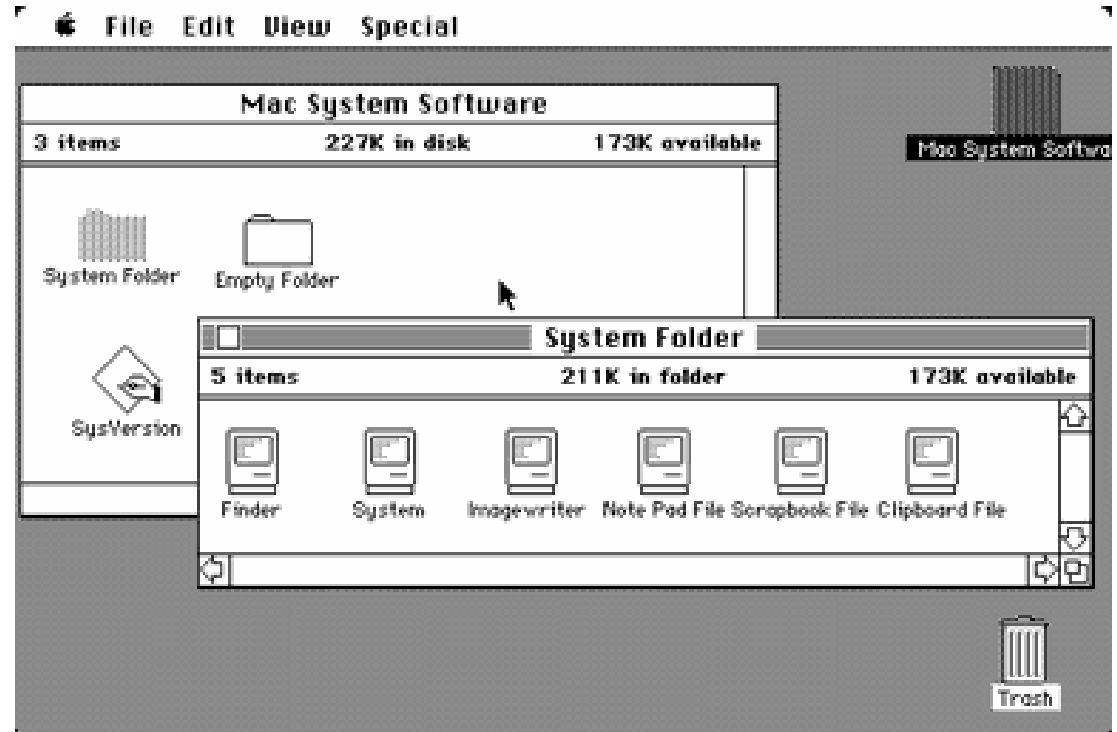

Zoals je vroeger in MS-DOS een computer moest bedienen door het letterlijk te typen, en je het later kon bedienen via een bitmap interface.

Laten we de verschillende systemen overlopen.

Deze lijst is niet compleet, maar heeft wel een goed beeld welke systemen er bestaan.

Bij elk systeem staat er bij of deze belangrijke functies aanwezig zijn:

No code

= je hebt geen ervaring nodig in coderen.

Drag-and-Drop

= je kan je website maken door objecten te slepen in je werkblad.

Webshop

= e-commerce is mogelijk op het platform.

Inclusief webruimte

= er is webruimte inbegrepen in je account om je content in te plaatsen.

Databases

= je werkt met onafhankelijke databases om je content makkelijk in je site te plaatsen.

Wordpress

gratis

De bekendste. Met Wordpress maak je een website, blog of webshop.

Wordpress makkelijk uitbreidbaar.

43% van de websites is gemaakt op Wordpress.

Wordpress is gratis, maar dan wel zeer basic. De kosten zitten vaak in de plugins die je nodig hebt om een interactieve website te maken.
