

At the rising and setting
of the sun, the living and the dead exchange
day and night.

KALA

(summer, fire, birth)

TUKULA

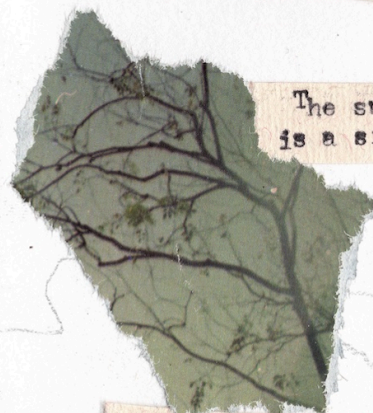

(fall, air, maturity)

The setting of the sun
signifies mans death
and its rising his rebirth
or the continuity of his life.

LUVEMBA

(winter, earth, death)

The sun, in its rising and setting, is a sign of this cycle.

Death is merely a transition.

Mans life has no end,
it constitutes a cycle.

MUSONI

(spring, water, conception)
