

Babel

From reckoning to rebirth

Context

Come, let us build ourselves a city with a tower that reaches to the heavens, so that we may make a name for ourselves.”
Genesis 11:4

So the Lord scattered them from there over all the earth, and they stopped building the city. That is why it was called Babel.
Genesis 11:9

Concept Overview

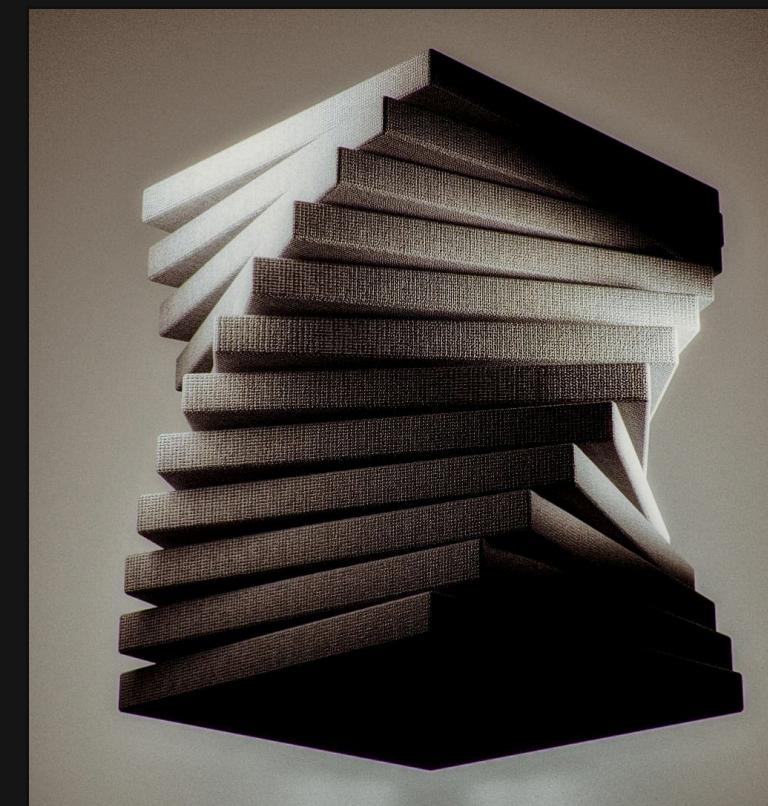

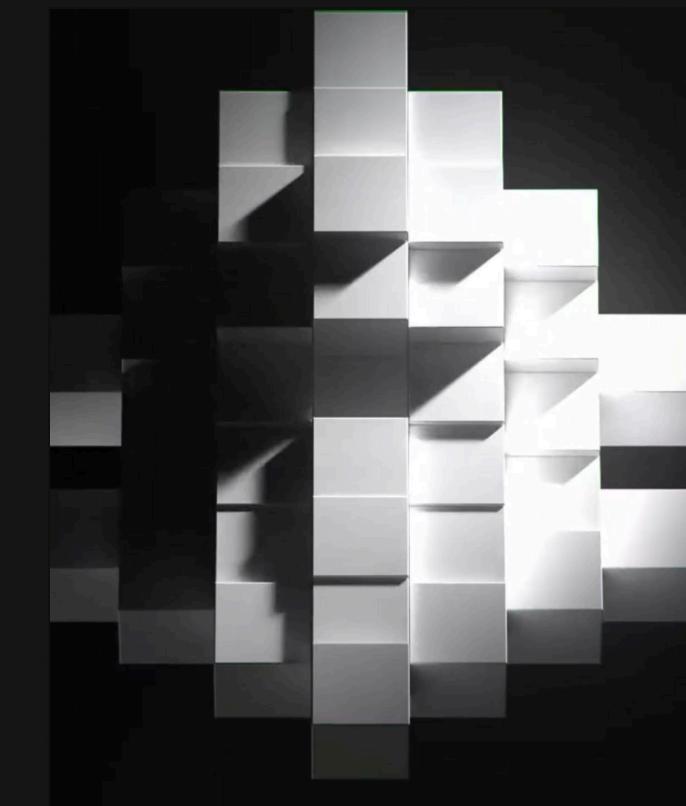

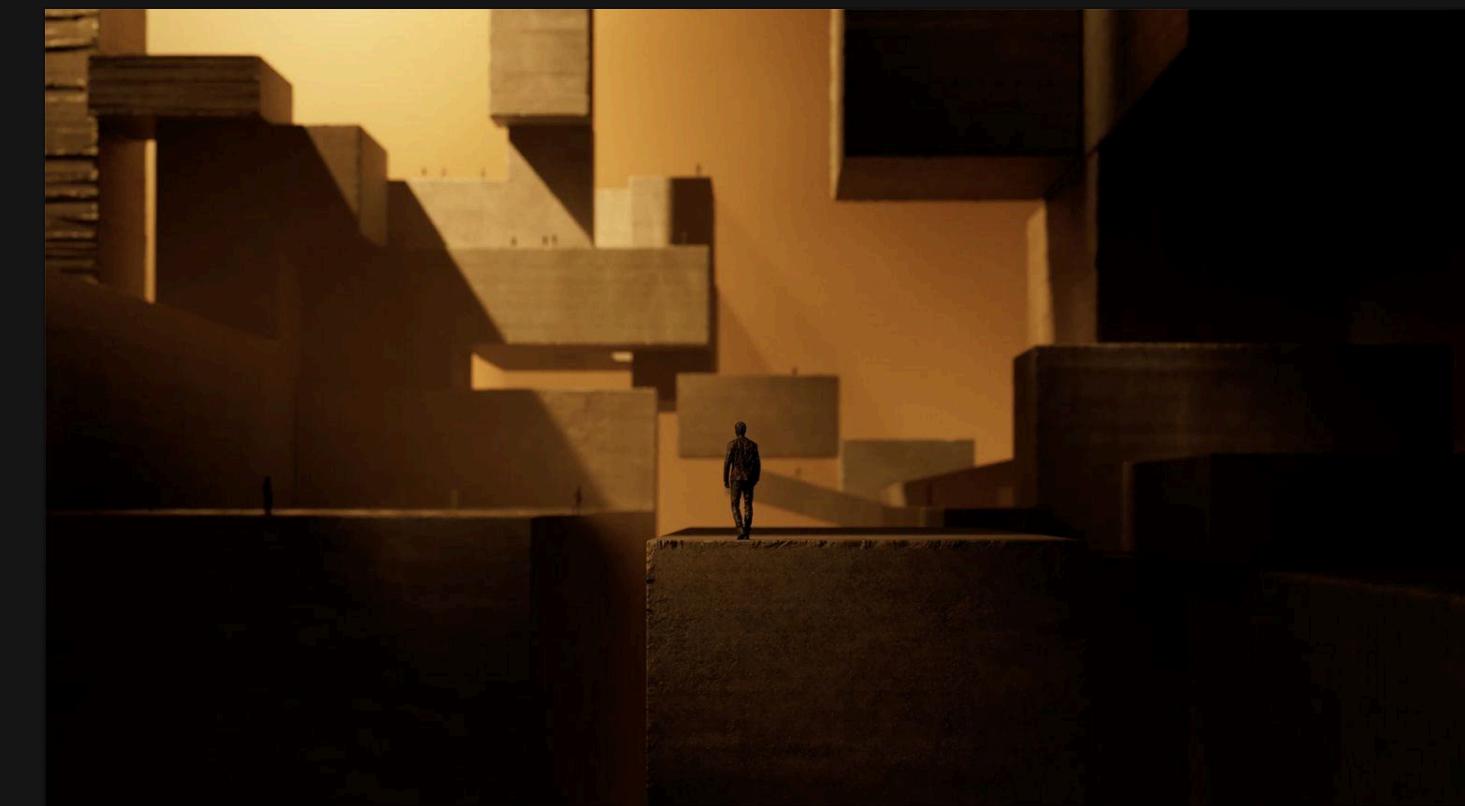

We follow the rise of the Tower of Babel, built in unified ambition and struck down in divine judgment.

Its collapse becomes a poetic rebirth, scattered fragments giving rise to a diverse new world; a symbol for hope and that destruction is, in fact, not the end of the story.
