To Whom it May Concern,

My name is Stephanie Byron and it is my pleasure to recommend Angelina DeDominicis for the art teacher position. Angelina and I worked together for two summers at Girl Scouts of Connecticut's Camp Merrie-Wood. In the position of Arts and Crafts Director, Angelina has shown many qualities that would benefit your community.

In all my time working at Camp Merrie-Wood, Angelina has proven to be the most reliable employee. She shows up every day for work with a positive attitude. She plans her activities in advance so she can make sure she has everything she needs in order to teach her art lessons. Angelina is always early so that she is prepared for the day. She reviews her schedule and prepares her materials and area so that she can teach her lessons with ease. If something does not go as planned, Angelina is resilient and is able to come up with another plan.

Angelina is a team player. She completes all of her individual responsibilities and also helps out in other ways around camp outside of her normal every day duties. She communicates with others well. She makes sure to give any essential information to the camp director as needed. Angelina works collaboratively with other positions on camp in order to integrate a variety of skills. For example, she along with our sports and games director brought capture the flag to camp as a weekly event. This event was one that campers looked forward to every week. Her innovative ideas allowed for campers to try new activities and stretch their creativity.

Angelina has shown that she would be an asset to any school and would make a great art teacher. If you need more information, please don't hesitate to contact me at or 860-798-4827 or stephaniebalboni@gmail.com.

Sincerely,
