

Mila Radau

Hi, I'm Mila,

I love working on my projects in a café while capturing everything through photography and videography. I enjoy staging things and making them look aesthetically pleasing. I usually start my projects with a rough plan but let my intuition guide me as I work.

I'm always experimenting with new approaches and interesting ideas, aiming to inspire others and convey important topics in a creative way.

I thrive under pressure but also appreciate taking my time to work on things thoroughly, whether in a relaxed environment or as part of a great team.

that sums me up
