

The more or less sign ($\pm$) is a mathematical symbol used to indicate precision in an approximation, or as a shorthand in the notation of a quantity with two possible values.

The symbols “ $\pm$ ” and “ $\mp$ ” are used in chess to assess the positional advantage of a player. In chess, the “ $\pm$ ” sign indicates that the White player has a better position than the Black player.

Léane Lloret was born in 1999 in Grenoble, France. A graduate in fashion and costume history of the Ecole du Louvre – Palais du Louvre, Paris, France she is specialized in contemporary artist's books.
