

Design Honors
DSD-3696-A
Rich Tu

Playlist Design

Create visual representations of a personal passion. I am constantly creating playlists, curating music of all types and organizing them in ways specific to my liking. The goal for this project was to create a series of square designs with my own personal photography, unique typography and textures, and to curate a fun and personal collection- just like the music. I created additional digital assets; event posters & a video for social.

