BREATHWORK

Austin Millz, known for his unique fusion of hip-hop and dance music, recently kicked off his nationwide "Fresh Air Tour" in support of his new EP, 'Breathwork.' The six-track EP serves as a soundtrack for the different stages of a night out, from pouring the first drink to finding that special someone to leave with. The EP features a diverse array of collaborations, including Estelle, Duckwrth, Aline Baraz, Destin Conrad, and Justine Skye, each adding their own flavor to the mix. The lead single, "Inhale/Exhale (Feat. Sabrina Claudio)," has already made waves, landing on Rolling Stone's "All the Songs You Need to Know This Week" list.

CREATE MY OWN THING
OUT OF IT. IT'S SOMETHING UNIQUE AND AUTHENTIC."

Austin's impressive career has seen him perform at prestigious events such as Quincy Jones' AKG 70th anniversary celebration and Beyoncé's special Coachella Homecoming event. His North American headlining tour, "Fresh Air Tour," which kicked off in San Francisco in February, will take him to major cities across the continent including New York, Boston, Atlanta, and Los Angeles, where he will wrap up the tour at the end of June.

In addition to his tour, Austin has also announced a five-show Las Vegas Residency with WynnNightlife, which debuted April 10th and is running
