

Jacquelyn Singh

Hello, my name is Jacquelyn Singh, I am an illustrator and cartoonist based in New York. I like to write my own stories of my own original characters and illustrate the world around me. I've been inspired by manga and anime growing up, which further pushes me towards my dreams of publishing my own work.

EXPERIENCE

Island Furrier, Staten Island — Customer service

December 2023, December 2024

During the holiday season I worked in retail- cashed out transactions, tracked inventory, styled customers, advertised our coats, and delegated when needed.

Rabbit Anatomy, Online — Illustrator/ Logo Designer

May 2025 - June 2025

For Rabbit anatomy I designed their company logo and other illustrative design elements- going through several rounds of critiques, color palette changes, and discussions on the logo piece.

Muse Art Club, St. John's University — Treasurer and Event Host

January 2025 - May 2025

As Treasurer I handled the finances of the art club- I documented where our budget went, filled receipts to the school, and collected our checks from the schools office. During my time I aided in hosting events, guided guests through activities, and communicated event ideas I thought guests would like.

Freelancer

June 2023 - September 2025

I've worked selling my own work creating prints and selling sticker sheets at events at my school.
